DETAILED ACTION

Claims 14-30 are presented for reconsideration on the merits.

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed January 8, 2008, has been received and entered. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-13, in the reply filed on July 20, 2007, is acknowledged.

Claims 14-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on July 20, 2007.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on October 12, 2004, was received. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 16-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over newly cited US 5972895, cited on enclosed PTO-892 Form.

The claims are drawn to methods for stimulating growth and resistance to diseases in fish and crustaceans comprising administering to fish and crustaceans an effective amount of GHRP-6.

The US '895 patent teaches GHRP and other compounds used for stimulating the growth of fish and crustaceans, note col. 2, lines 40-45. Also note column 1, line 65.

The claims differ from US '895 in that GHRP-6 is not clearly disclosed but with exception it is described in the reference section but not for treating fish, etc. Further, the step of administering (e.g. injection is also not clearly defined.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the claimed invention was made to select, however, GHRP-6 to treat fish and crustaceans for purpose of increasing their body weight and thereby increasing their resistance to disease from parasites such as Trichodina, sea lice, etc., because the US patent as discussed above clearly recognizes that GH compounds are useful for treating these animals. In addition to provide the compound in effective amounts is clearly within the skill of an ordinary artisan and to treat the animals via immersion in freshwater or seawater is an obvious modification of the aquaculture art.

One of skill would have been motivated to optimize treatment protocols by experimenting with effective amounts for optimal preventative and therapeutic care and treatment. Also all types of fish including tilapia and salmon as well as varied types of crustaceans would have been expected to be treatable with the GH compounds, including GHRP-6. Further, to vary treatment protocols, such as in daily intervals of 1 to 7 days, etc. is within the purview of one of ordinary skill in the art. Animals are typically treated via their feed, especially in the aquaculture environments because it is less stressful for the fish and crustaceans. Clearly the claims are prima facie obvious over the cited prior art.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

All claims fail to be patentably distinguishable over the state of the art discussed above and cited on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449. Therefore, the claims are properly rejected.

The remaining references listed on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449 are cited to further show the state of the art.

No claims are allowed.
